Feeding the 5,000

New Life Wesleyan Church is leading an outreach called Feeding the 5,000. We have the opportunity to support them financially and through volunteering. They currently are holding this every Tuesday night from 6pm-7pm on the corner of Franklin and Montana (right across the old family dollar). Pastor Ron says that the more volunteers the better! Right now, they are just providing hot meal, clothes, and groceries/personal care items, but he would like to setup a place where people can pray with people also.

It's time for God's people to pray...On September 23, Ida Mae Hodgson, our Prayer Team Director, is recommending a book, “Desperate for Change,” 40 Days of Prayer for America. We are asking for God to heal our land and that, as a nation, we turn back to God. If you would like to read this book, see Ida Mae. Suggested price is $6, but if you do not have the means to pay, we will provide a book for you. Sign-up sheet for the book is in the foyer. We need everyone to be praying for America!

In coordination with the Prayer March 2020 in Washington D.C. with Franklin Graham and our prayer focus here at FFWC the next 40 days, on September 26, at 12:00 PM, there will be a prayer walk leaving from Flint First as we walk 1.8 miles (the amount they are marching in Washington D.C.) to pray for our community and for the nation as a whole.
